

Welcome to Stockholm Inn & Carl Larsson Rooms

History

The Stockholm Inn was first established as the Brad Lynn restaurant, founded by Alf Carlson in the late 1940's. It was named after his son Brad and daughter Lynn. The family continued to operate the business until 1964. After that, the space served as short-term restaurants until Gus and Maxine Peterson bought the business from a bankruptcy for $11,000. The Stockholm Inn was founded on June 24, 1968 at its original location of 1422 Twentieth Street. The business continued with the sale to Vera and Jim Osborne on March 24, 1970. After seven years, stewardship of the business was passed to John and Elayne Bilka on January 1, 1976. The business, under the Bilka's guidance and direction, continued to thrive and prosper at the corner of Broadway and Twentieth Streets. Due to continued growth, in March of 1996 the business moved to the current location, thereby doubling the seating capacity.

After over 25 years of dedication and service to the community, the Bilka's elected to retire and sell the restaurant to a local group of investors, collectively known as "The Lingonberry Group." The reason behind the purchase is reflected in the current mission statement "to consistently provide the best quality food at an affordable price, combined with the highest levels of customer service, in keeping with the traditions for which the Stockholm Inn has become known." It is our intention to maintain the Stockholm Inn as a local institution and we will make every effort to assure your dining satisfaction. We wish to express our gratitude for your continued patronage and support.
